

Junie B. Jones is (almost) a Flower Girl

Written by Barbara Park

Reviewed by D.W. (Age) 8

My book is about what happened when Junie B. heard that her Aunt Flo was getting married. She went to school and she told her friends Grace and Lucille that she was going to her first wedding. Grace and Lucille said that they loved weddings. Lucille said to Junie B., "So, are you going to be the flower girl?" Junie B. wanted to be the flower girl but her Aunt Flo already chose a Flower Girl.

I made many connections with this book. The first reason I like this book is because I remembered once I went to one wedding and I wanted to be the flower girl. I wanted to be the flower girl because I wanted to throw the petals. Also the second reason is because I also bought my first dress for the wedding and I was excited like Junie B. Jones.

If you like books that are funny, silly and entertaining you'll like this book. Also if you like mysteries you'll also like this book. I say it's mysterious because in the book you'll wonder who the flower girl will be. That's why I think you'll like it.